

The Road Of Life

My story has been a journey
Along the road of life
With many twists and turns
Love, laughter and strife

I've travelled through the years
As time went rushing by
I've fulfilled many dreams
So I ask you not to cry

The steering wheel will guide you
Through the coming days
Until the headlamps shine again
Even through the sun's warm rays

I am not too far from you
I will sit beside my friends
The passenger seat's not empty
Despite this journey's end

So all I ask of you now
Is please enjoy the ride
That is this wonderful life
Until I am back by your side

By Debi Robinson.

Sourced from www.DRCelebrant.com

Debi Robinson

INDEPENDENT CIVIL CELEBRANT

